
outing Friday 9th November?

Posted by judith - 2007/11/08 03:29

Hi there, new to this site but loved the part on parks - I have never been to Oreneta or the Labyrinth!! Sooo, I wondered if anyone else would be interested in a trip there on Friday? My little one, Max, is 15months old. Judith Hi there, as you can see I don't get onto the computer very often, so sorry for taking so long to get back to you. The labyrinth park is in fact closed at the moment,as it turns out, until the 21st of December, for tree trimming. Another outing somewhere would be fine with me, just that I am not free much next week, maybe Friday is an option.. :)
