
stroller/pram

Posted by pariz - 2007/12/24 22:44

Hi

We have a 9 month old and moved back to barcelona recently. Last week our stroller/pram was stolen from the inside landing (entrance). Sadly, since we've just moved in to a new place, we've spent most of our money on getting settled in. I can't afford a brand new pram, but if anyone has one that they are giving away or selling, please let me know. Or even if you know a place where i could get one.

thanks

pari

Re:stroller/pram

Posted by elvira - 2007/12/27 11:26

i saw a really nice 3 wheeler in the window of the humana (charity shop) on parallel - right next to the metro stop. i am not sure how much it was but its not an expensive store usually... other than that i am not sure where you can get second had ones here. good luck!

Discount Store for prams etc.

Posted by Emsy - 2008/01/07 13:33

There is a store in Vila Olimpica at the Centre de La Vila shopping centre called Stocks Baratos. They also have an online store at www.stocksbaratos.com and plan to stock more an more baby and kids stuff. They have some prams, strollers for around 90 euros and high chairs for 25 euros. At the moment they have a 1,000 car seats in stock too. All end of line. Second shop on your right when you go in via the entrance on the corner. There main stock is household goods such as kettles, toaster and plenty more.
